

Associate Lawyer, Downtown Calgary – 100% In Office

About the Firm:

Our client is a well-established small law firm located in the heart of Downtown Calgary, committed to providing top-notch legal services to our clients. Our client's firm specializes in serving small to medium-sized clients, and their practice areas include corporate, commercial, corporate finance, mergers & acquisitions, and securities regulation. With a focus on entrepreneurship, our client takes pride in fostering strong client relationships and delivering tailored legal solutions.

Job Summary:

Our client is seeking a detail-oriented Associate Lawyer to join their dynamic legal team. The ideal candidate will have experience on a variety of corporate law matters, including corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, securities, and general corporate organization and have 2-15 years' experience. Our client is flexible to discuss total compensation to match background and profile.

Responsibilities:

- Provide legal support to private and public companies with respect to general corporate, corporate finance, M&A and securities regulatory matters.
- Draft, review, and negotiate contracts and other legal documents.
- Conduct legal research and prepare legal memoranda.
- Manage legal files in coordination with the principal lawyer, ensuring all legal matters are handled with precision and professionalism.
- Utilize critical thinking skills to analyze complex legal issues and develop creative solutions for our clients' challenges.
- Contribute to the development of firm culture.

Qualifications:

- Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from an accredited law school.
- Active member of the Law Society of Alberta in good standing.
- 2 – 15 years of relevant experience.
- Experience with public companies is an asset.
- Curiosity and a growth mindset, dedicated to professional excellence.
- Desire to contribute to the growth of a collaborative, enthusiastic and supportive workplace

Benefits:

- Competitive salary and benefits.
- A team-oriented environment focussed on collective success. environment.
- Exposure to a diverse client base.

If you are interested, please email catherine@cbibusiness.ca

